

Each one's a steelband hero

BETWEEN them they share many valuable years and moments in the annals of steelband history. These four men are among the most outstanding pan personalities this country has ever produced.

Captured at last Thursday's reunion of pannists of yesteryear with the pan heroes of today, they took time out to pose for photographer
