

16 bands for the greens

PAN Trinbago yesterday released the names of the 16 steel orchestras that have been selected for the semi-final of the 1988 National Panorama competition.

The 16 semi-finalists are: Catelli Trinidad All Stars, WITCO Desperadoes, Trintopec Starlift, Amoco Renegades, Fertrin Pandemonium, Curepe Scherzando, Vat 19 Fonclaire, Carib Tokyo, Trintoc Invaders, Pamberi, American Stores Exodus, Dunlop Tornadoes, Sangre Grande Cordettes, Arima Golden Symphony, Potential Symphony and Trintopec Deltones.

The steelband body also conducted the draw, for order of appearance, in this weekend's three Zone finals.

The finals for bands in the North and East zones takes place tomorrow evening, at the Queen's Park Savannah, and the order of appearance for the East Zone is: Golden Symphony, Gerizim Angel Harps, Sangre Grande Cordettes, Potential Symphony, Jaynotes, Curepe Scherzando, American Stores Exodus and Pamberi.

The order of appearance for the North Zone is: WITCO Desperadoes, Fertrin Pandemonium, Trintoc Invaders, Carib Tokyo, Trintopec Starlift, Amoco Renegades, Phase II Pan

Groove and Catelli Trinidad All Stars.

Bands competing in the South Zone Final, to be held at Skinner Park, on Sunday evening, will appear in the following order: Hillside Symphony, Hatters, Dunlop Tornadoes, Kalomo Kings, Vat 19 Fonclaire, Silver Harps, Antillean All Stars and Trintopec Deltones.

Pan Trinbago also announced the names of the bands which were selected to compete in the Pan-round-Neck Final. They are Chord Masters, Hoyteonians, Pan Jammers, Scrunters Pan Groove, TCL Skiffle Bunch, Woodbrook Modernaires and World Wide.

Express 4/02/1988
pg 2