Anglican Bishop's Residence

Also called Hayes Court. This typical grand house, styled with a pleasant mixture of French and English. It was built in 1910 and has always been the residence of the Bishops of the Anglican Diocese.