

Pan at Tunapuna on Sunday

RESIDENTS of Tunapuna were disappointed last Sunday. They flocked to the Auzonville Park to hear a concert by one of Port-of-Spain's top steelband and none turned up.

Yesterday Mr. George Goddard, President of the Steelbands Association, explained :

Coca Cola Gay Desperadoes were originally due to play but asked to be replaced. Ol Oak Casablanca was asked to stand-in, but, due to a mix up in information, did not themselves turned up.

This Sunday, however, the people of Tunapuna and St. Augustine will get their fill. Goddard said yesterday that Carib Tokyo Steelband will play at Auzonville Park from four o'clock in the afternoon until six o'clock.
