

A 11. AN EAST INDIAN FAMILY, TRINIDAD

POST CARD

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY)

East Indians in the past were introduced into Trinidad as indentured labourers on plantations. They and their descendants have settled in large numbers as peasant proprietors and enjoy the full privileges of citizenship.

Dear Vera & Ted -

I suppose you wonder what's happened to me. I have another trip on the Georgie and then my plans are rather vague. I have something to send to Vera ^{& Beego} and will get it off as soon as possible
 Love
 Jim
