

Presentation cops two pan prizes

FATHER HILAIRE, a teacher-priest at Presentation College, San Fernando, led the college's steelband through the streets of the Southern Borough and captured two major cash awards in separate competitions on J'Ouvert morning.

The College Band's flagwoman Michelle Alexander won the first prize for the best flagwoman in the John Hoyte "Bomb" competition. The College band also won a special prize in the "Pan Round De Bend" competition organized by the Southern Division of the Trinidad and Tobago Chamber of Industry and Commerce and the South Trinidad Chamber of Industry and Commerce.

In the un-sponsored bands section of the 'Hoyte' "Bomb" competition, Antillean All Stars came first with West Stars and South Stars as runners-up. Sounds 2001 won the Ole-time steel band competition, while Flip Deco Hillside Symphony won the prize for the band best portraying the spirit of J'Ouvert.

