

World Wide wins

CRAZY, the calypsonian who sings "Paul" waves flag on Independence Square for World Wide, the band which won the finals of the Pan Round Neck competition. Photo: GARY HAMILTON.

JAMMING pan proved not good enough to win the pan-round-de-neck title on Friday night as 1992 champions Pan Jammers found when World Wide, Playing Crazy's Paul, dethroned them in the finals at Independence Square.

The small (conventional) band competition was also held Friday night with Moods emerging the winner playing Ken

"Professor" Philmore's All Night.
The full results are as follows:

PAN-ROUND-DE-NECK

World Wide, Crazy's Paul, (267 pts); Pan on de Move, De Fosto's Pan In Yuh Pan, (266 pts); Automotive Components Trinidad Nostalgic, Paul, (262 pts); Scrunter's Pan Groove, Wayne T's Doye Doye, (261 pts); Pan Jammers, Doye Doye, (247 pts); Arima

All Stars, Pan In Yuh Pan, (242 pts).

SMALL BAND

Moods, Ken Philmore's All Night, (261 pts); Belmont Fifth Dimension, their own composition You Can't Touch Dis, (250 pts); Players' Symphony, David Rudder's Dust in Yuh Face (241.5 pts); Simple Song All Night, (237) pts; Jay Notes, Kitchener's Mystery Band, (227 pts).