

A 12 COCONUT PALMS, MAYARO BEACH, TRINIDAD

POST CARD

Copyright London

This typical picture of the wind swept East coast of Trinidad is not offered as an example of the correct way of growing coconuts, but gives a good impression of a scene dominated by the biting trade wind which regularly sweeps across the Atlantic from the North East.

Feb 27/33

2 30PM (FOR ADDRESS ONLY)

FEB

1933

Dear Mabel,

Looks something like Sheikh Harold, my lonesome and looking for a nurse

Muel Ed,

Miss Mabel Blackley

1581 Dexter Place

Cleveland,

Ohio U.S.A.

Printed in England (A 12)