

CHACONIER (Warszewiczia coccinea)

POST CARD

CHACONIER (Warszewiczia coccinea)

The Chaconier (Warszewiczia coccinea) is a small tree common in the forests of Trinidad and often making a splendid roadside display.

It is named after General Chacon, the last Spanish Governor of the island.

For Address only

Printed in England
Reproduced from Water Colour Drawings by Mrs. W. G. Freeman, A.R.C.S.
Copyright London