

Invaders To Start March

The Shell Invaders steelband of Woodbrook, led by 'Captain' Elie Mannette, will be the first of ten bands on stage tonight at the Steelbandsmen's Association's "Panorama" in front of the Grand Stand, Queen's Park Savannah.

The bands will compete before a panel of three judges—Miss Umilta McShine, Major Rupert Dennison and Commander McDonald of the U.S. Naval Base at Chaguaramas.

Ballots drawn by the bands' representatives at the association's headquarters on Wrightson Road on Wednesday indicated the order in which they will appear before the judges.

The order will be: Invaders, Casablanca, San Juan All Stars, Pan-Am North Stars, Starlift, City Symphony, Wonderland, Sundowners, Gay Desperadoes and Modern Sunland.
