

ML1040

All Stars tops Panorama semis

NEAL AND Massy Trinidad All Stars topped the Panorama Semi Finals held last Sunday at the Queen's Park Savannah with a score of 499 points.

The Duke Street band outplayed top contenders Phase II Pan Groove and WITCO Desperadoes, beating them into second and third place respectively.

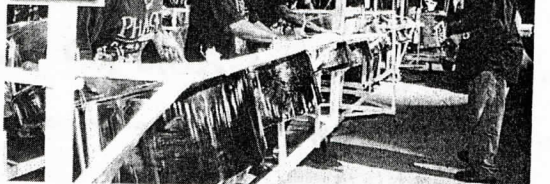

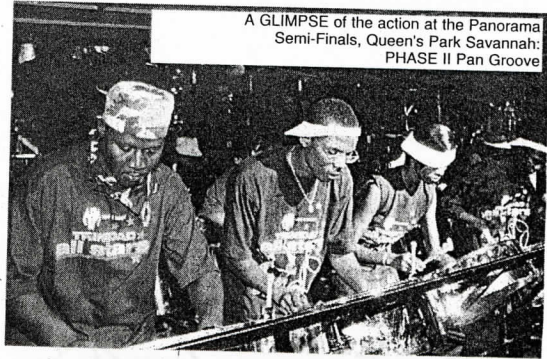

The first 11 placed steelbands will be competing in the Panorama finals on February 9, at the Queen's Park Savannah.

Reigning Panorama champs, Exodus who opted to play in the semi-finals, automatically qualify for the finals to defend their title.

Following are the official results:

Name of Steel Bands	Points
1. Neal and Massy Trinidad All Stars	466
2. Phase II Pan Groove	458
3. WITCO Desperadoes	456.5
4. TCL Group Skiffle Bunch	455.5
5. Solo Pan Knights	449
6. Tropical Angel Harps	448
7. BP Renegades	446.5
8. Petrotrin Hatters	444
9. Redemption Sound Setters (Tobago)	443
10. PCS Starlift	441.5
11. Innocent Pamperi	440
12. Petrotrin Deltones	437.5
13. Belmont Fifth Dimension	434
14. BWIA Invaders	433.5
15. Carib Dixieland	431.5
16. Birdsong	430
17. Melodians	429
18. Silver Stars	426
19. Carib Tokyo	425
19. Diego Martin Merrytones	425
19. Potential Symphony	425
22. Fonclaire	420
23. Tornadoes	416.5
24. Harmonites	416
25. Parry's Pan School	411.5
26. Couva Joylanders	410
27. Nutones	402
28. Our Boys	401
29. Southern Marines Steelband Foundation	397
*30. Fascinators Pan Symphony	395
31. Cùrepe Scherzando	391.5
31. Longdenville Claytones	391.5
33. Southern All Stars	366.5

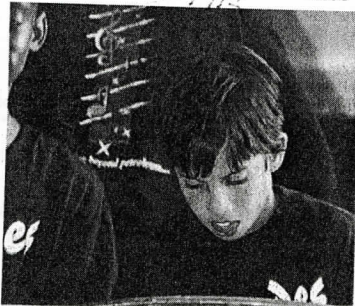

A GLIMPSE of the action at the Panorama Semi-Finals, Queen's Park Savannah: PHASE II Pan Groove

NEAL & MASSY Trinidad All Stars

TCL Group Skiffle Bunch

BP RENEGADES

Glanna Dick, bass

BWIA Invaders
 PHOTOS BY ENRICO MATTHEWS

TROPICAL ANGEL HARPS