ONLY elephant slacks, the very latest in women's wear, is selling faster than the Kitchener and Sparrow long-playing calypso records, at Stephens, Todd and Fogarty's during this pre-carnival season.

TO GIVE an indication as to how the "elephants" are going to over-run the streets on Carnival Season, the records are being bought in batches of 50 and 60 and have been top sellers for weeks.

Wide range

But these are only two of the wide range of what the firm describes as "the best" in everything for this and any other season.

They point to the theme for the season "Fete set, get set" and added that this well fits their all year round slogan of "the best place to buy everything", because this department store boast of the "best" for ladies, gents and children.

A breakdown shows that men could not help choosing from the latest styles in Nehru shirts and "Afrojaks" as well as a large variety of blazing colours of "mod" materials for trousers.

Afrojaks

A big shipment of these shirts and Afrojaks are expected shortly from Barbados. They are something new and would be well appreciated by the Trinidadian male, it was stated.

For children there are also bright coloured nehru shirts for both boys and girls, while the little misses will revel in bright multi-coloured shorts and slacks.

The teenagers will have their pick from the latest in mini dresses, couletts, psychedelic dresses and blouses and a wide variety of "mod" jewellery including earrings, hippy chains, and metallic belts.

Co-ordinates

Apart from the elephant pants that the women are just falling over, there is also the newest co-ordinates with bollero style uppers and matching trousers, with open midrif. The wide range of blouses, hats and masks, and softies, to fit every pocket fall into the general pattern.

To complete the range, there are fascinating materials, and the women could collect Mc Coll pattern with designs in Afro, mini and many of the latest styles for those who want their clothes custom made.
