

TO SOME, the Wes Hall Testimonial cricket match at the Oval was the thing for Sunday evening relaxation but to others only sweet steelband music could do the trick.

Pan in Hollows

So their choice was the Cordettes Steel Orchestra which played in the Hollows of the Botanic Gardens, Port-of-Spain.

The open air steelband concert drew many spectators who looked forward to hearing some of this year's road march pieces on steel.

They got what they expected.
