

Zonal finals at Savannah tonight Solo Harmonites first on the stage

FOUR-time national Panorama champions Solo Harmonites kicks off the action in tonight's zonal finals at the Queen's Park Savannah.

Both the North and East Zones will crown champions tonight as Phase II Pan Groove and American Stores Exodus defend their titles. The Easterners will be crowned the first Panorama champions of 1987 and the favourites Pamberi will be jealously guarding the lead they obtained in the national preliminaries last Sunday. Playing second tonight after Harmonites will be Birdsong followed by Pamberi, National Quarries Cordettes, Simple Song, Nu Tones, Gerizim Angel

Harps and American Stores Exodus.

The playing positions in the North finals which follow the east finals are: Merrytones Steel Orchestra, Fertrin Pandemonium, Trintoc Invaders, Catelli Trinidad All Stars, WITCO Desperadoes, Phase II Pan Groove, Amoco Renegades and Valley Harps.

On Sunday, Vat 19 Fonclaire will defend their South/Central title from the front as they have drawn number one. They will be followed in order by Hatters Steel Orchestra, Old Oak Siparia Deltones, Trintoc Sunvalley, Hillside Symphony Steel Orchestra, Antillean All Stars, Silver Harps Steel Orchestra and Tropical Angel Harps.
