

Round 2:18 bands are chosen

EIGHTEEN steelbands have been selected for the Panorama semi-finals to be held on Friday night at the Queen's Park Savannah.

Six of the 18 were selected by both the people and the judges, six by the judges alone and six by the people alone.

Those selected by the judges and the people are the Solo Harmonites, Shell Invaders, Cocoa Cola Silver Stars, WITCO Gay Desperadoes, Guinness Cavaliers and Catelli All Stars.

The six selected by the judges alone are Mosco Tiles Fonclair, Old Oak Casablanca, Ju-Cantillean All Stars, Port Contractors, City Symphony, Lever Bros. Gay Flamingoes and Y. de Lima Blue Diamonds.

Ballots

Those selected by the people alone are CIBC Starlift, WASA Silver-tones, Carib Tokyo, Maritime Hatters, AMOCO Renegades and Elegant Ebonites.

Persons attending the Panorama show were each given a card with the 40 bands which participated and were asked to mark out the 12 of their choice.

All cards with more than 12 marks were disqualified. Checking of the cards or ballots took place at CDC headquarters yesterday morning.
