Pan bands face judges tonight

PANORAMA 2007 kicks off tonight with the single pan bands and conventional medium bands facing the judges in their respective panyards. All judging begins at 7 p.m.

At the end of this exercise which ends on January 31, 44 bands (14 Small, 14 Medium and 16 Large), will move on to the National Semi-Finals which will be held at the Queen's Park Savannah west, Port of Spain, from 9 a.m.

The semi-final round for single pans will be held at Victoria Square, Port of Spain, on February 10.

For the purpose of the competition, participating steelbands may select and perform any calypso (whether from the current year or any previous year), as long as the same composition has not been played by the said band in a Panorama competition.
