Scoon plea on U.S. troops

BY CANUTE JAMES IN KINGSTON

SIR PAUL SCOON, the Governor-General of Grenada, has said he would like U.S. troops now on the island to remain for as long as possible.

Sir Paul was speaking as the U.S. military continued to withdraw soldiers who invaded the island 13 days ago, toppling the military government which had taken power in a bloody coup six days earlier.

"I would like to keep them as long as possible and I have been saying that to everybody," he told a group of U.S. Congressmen visiting the island.

This has raised questions in the region that Sir Paul may want U.S. troops to stay until an election is held in Grenada.

Sir Paul had said earlier that an election would be held within a year.

Prolonged U.S. military presence on the island could complicate plans for a Commonwealth peace-keeping force.

Several countries which objected to the invasion are willing to contribute soldiers and policemen to the force, but might be reluctant to do so while there is a strong U.S. military presence.

Sir Paul has also asked the U.S. to complete the construction of the controversial airport in the island's south.

The airport was being built by about 600 Cuban construction workers who are now being repatriated, and with help from Venezuela and U.S. and British companies.

It is not clear how American involvement in the completion of the airport will affect the £6.6m contract from the previous Grenada Government to Plessey Airports of Britain.

The company's work, which was backed by the Export Credits Guarantee Department (ECGD), has not been completed.

Mr Alistair McIntyre, deputy-Secretary General of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (Unctad), is likely to be asked this week to head Grenada's interim government which will manage the island's affairs until an election.

Mr McIntyre, a Grenadian economist, has been in several meetings with Sir Paul. He went to Grenada from Venezuela where he had been on Unctad business.

As head of the interim government, Mr McIntyre would command the respect of the heads of government of Caribbean countries which have supported or opposed the invasion.

In the late 1970s he was Secretary-General of the Caribbean Economic Community and is well-known to the political leaders of the region.
