PAN FINALISTS TO MEET IN POS TODAY

LEADERS of the 12 bands to contest the finals of the Steelband Panorama as well as finalists for Calypso King, King of the Bands and Queen of the Bands competitions, will attend a special meeting at the Steelbandmen Association's headquarters on Wrightson Road, Port-of-Spain, at 4.30 this afternoon.

Sponsors of all steelbands which participated in Panorama preliminaries on Sunday and leaders of the non-sponsored are also expected to attend.

Guest tickets will be distributed at the meeting. The sponsors of the finalist bands which will also include the finalists of the non-sponsored bands, will get eight tickets each.

Sponsors and leaders of other bands which participated in the preliminaries will get four tickets each.

Mr. Goddard said he would also like all employers (Government and otherwise) to grant members of finalist steelbands the day off from work tomorrow, with full pay.

Tunapuna Carnival

ATTRACTIVE prizes are in the offing for masqueraders in Tunapuna, particularly for the Best Steelband, Best Ole Mas, Individuals and for the Kiddies competition.

There will be a parade of more than five bands on both Monday and Tuesday along the Eastern Main Road from Tacarigua to Curepe.

Gaylanders win

Arima contest

Gaylanders Steelband emerged champion band in Arima by defeating Arima All Stars, last year's champions.

Runner-up in the Steelband Contest, the finals of which were held last Saturday at the Arima Grand Stand, was L.C.I. Pentallite.

Third place went to Cross Stars. Last year's champions, All Stars, were unplaced.
