Boston, Mass.

February 17, 1928.

The following cable from Port of Spain, Trinidad, was received from the Cruise Director of our West Indies Cruise, on the S.S. "Columbus", this morning—

"Arrived on time. All well".

The day will be spent in Port of Spain, with sight-seeing drives in the city and into the surrounding country to Maraval.

On February 19, the Cruise will reach La Guayra in Venezuela, and on February 20, will arrive at Willemstad, a quaint Dutch city and capital of Curacao.

Very truly yours,
Raymond & Whitcomb Co.
