

...And a little child shall lead them

Little Joseph Lewis...the serious-faced lad in the Valley Harps.

HATTERS, Antillean All Stars, Sultan-Khan Silvertones, Valley Harps, Texaco West Stars and Trutones are the San Fernando Panorama finalists.

The bands were among 17 steel-bands which took part in the eliminations at Skinner Park on Sunday.

Trutones and Hatters were the biggest favourites with the crowd.

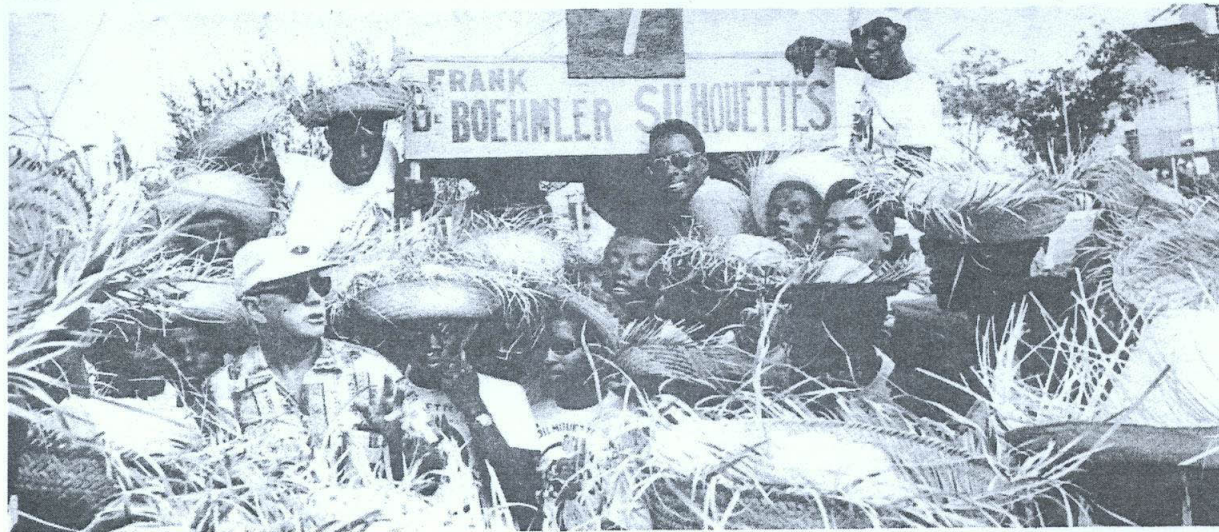

And Kitch seems set to retain his Road March honours as ten bands beat his tunes with two others beating Sparrow's "Mr. Walker."

Little Joseph Lewis, 8, stole the show when he appeared on the asphalt track beating bass for Valley Harps.

There were also female flag wavers aplenty.

The finals will be held February 20.

PANORAMA IN SOUTH!

Last minute instructions? Maybe but Silhouettes didn't make the grade

One of the many female flag-wavers on parade

Texaco West Stars...they beat their way into the final show