the break down of one motor this morning. Spent the day "doing" Port au Spicere and environs of Fimidad, had a room and shower at the airport guest house, a lovely lunch and now at 3:30 P.M. are about to board another DC 4 with destination, San Juan. How wonderful it will be to be able to spend U.S. money and travelers checks without the merchants saying: sorry but we can't take no
Port au Spicere
