

News Staff Reporter

SAN FERNANDO, Feb. 15—

For the third year running Southern Marine steel orchestra won the competition for the best band on the road in San Fernando on Carnival Monday. Sundowners Steel band was second.

Southern Marine also won top prize in the original class with rugby players. Second was Jumbie Jamboree.

Among the fancy Indians the Sioux Nation, presented by Allan Nicholas won first prize.

"Chief Red Leaf" by Allan Nicholas was adjudged winner of the fancy individuals while Rudolph Legall who won top prize among fancy clown with his presentation of "History of Trinidad" was also adjudged number one impersonator with Queen Elizabeth, the First.

Results:

Fancy Indians: 1 The Sioux Nation Presenting an Eagle Sacrifice; 2 The Six Nations of the Iroquois; 3 Sons of the Sun.

Original Indians: 1 Southern Marines Rugby Players; 2 Jumbie Jamboree; 3 Sundowners—Greasers.

Fancy Devil Bands: 1 Fancy Devils.

Ships Crew Sailors: 1 Fancy Sea Bees; 2 Texaco All Stars.

Bats and Clowns: 1 Circus Clowns; 2 Black Monster Bats; 3 Wedding of Princess Margaret and Armstrong-Jones.

Fancy Clowns: 1 Past and Present History of Trinidad.

Impersonator: "Queen Elizabeth I."

Minstrel Bands: 1 Brathwaite Bros.; 2 Harlem Minstrels.

Most Colourful Band: Life in Dogpatch.

Special Prizes: Circus Clowns; Southern Marines Rugby Players.

Steel Bands: 1 Southern Marines Steel Band; 2 Sundowners Steel Band; 3 Maestros Steel Band.

Special Prize: Guinness Gondoliers Steel Band.

INDIVIDUAL Fancy Indians: 1 Chief Red Leaf; 2 Hiawatha. Special Prize: White Hawk.

Original Indians: 1 Chief Little Thunder; 2 White Buffalo.

Originals: 1 Circus Clown; 2 Queen of the Beach. Special Prize—Rugby Player.

Individual Bats: 1 Black Bat; 2 Black Bat.

Fancy Devil: 1 Fancy Devil.

Fancy Robbers: 1 Fancy Robber (Rodney Abdool); 2 Fancy Robber (N. Naipaulsingh).