

UWI Guild wants money talks with PM

CHRISTINA SMITH

CREATED : 26 MAY 2017

CARIBBEAN NEWS

(Left to right): Jonathan St. Louis-Nahous, Guild President of the St. Augustine Campus; Kai Bridgewater, Guild President of the Cavehill Campus; Mikiela Gonzales, Guild President of the Mona Campus; Howard Brown, Guild President of the Open Campus

The Guild of Students at the UWI Cave Hill Campus will be hoping to have the ear of Prime Minister Freundel Stuart to discuss the possibility of repaying the massive debt owed to the tertiary institution.

The four Guild presidents from the campuses across the region held a press conference on Friday morning to shed light on the key issues coming out of the Inter Campus Guild Council Meeting (ICGC) 2017 which was held in Barbados from May 22 - 26.

President of the Cave Hill Guild, Kai Bridgewater, told the media they will be writing a formal proposal to the Government of Barbados within the next week requesting that the financial