

Trinidad, Coconut Grove

POST CARD

New York, March 8, 1927

A cable received from the S. S. RELIANCE advises arrival at Port of Spain, Trinidad, on time (March 6th 7 A.M.) after a smooth voyage from Barbados. Weather clear. Temperature 87°. The shore excursions to Santa Cruz and Maraval Valleys and the trip to Pitch Lake were highly enjoyed by the passengers.

Among the entertainment features on board was a concert given by the ship's orchestra.

The RELIANCE sailed for La Guayra at midnight March 7th.

HAMBURG-AMERICAN LINE

FOR ADDRESS

H. L. Taylor & Co.,
201 Water St.,
Haverhill, Mass.

TRINIDAD is a semi-oriental island, about one-third of the population being of Hindu origin. It is believed here that the souls of the dead live in the myriads of beautiful humming birds that flit about. Port of Spain is the capital. Pitch Lake is one of the sights. The main exports are sugar, molasses, cocoa and coffee. Discovered by Columbus in 1488.