

16 bands enter South Panorama

A RECORD 16 bands have registered for this year's Panorama contest organised by the San Fernando Carnival Development Committee.

Ten are sponsored bands. Last year there were only nine bands in the Competition which was won by Guinness Cavaliers.

Six bands are competing for the first time: Motown Steel Orchestra; Dunlop Tornados, of Point Fortin; Euphonics of Guapo; C. P. M. Stereotones of La Romain; Joylanders Steel Orchestra of Couva and Gay Cords Symphony Orchestra Marabella.

The other bands contesting are Ju-C Antillean All Stars, Trinidad Contractors F r e e French, Maritime Life Hatters, Moseo T i l e s Fonclaire; Guinness Cavaliers; Texaco West Stars; W.A.S.A. Silvertones; Teenage Symphony; Deltones Steel Orchestra; and Trinidad Tesoro Wildeats.

Preliminaries come off at Skinner Park February 7.

Already the south Calypso King finalists have been named. Registrations for the King and Queen of the Bands Competitions continue with Ossie Williams at the San Fernando Town Hall.
