

C 11 THE "PITCH LAKE" TRINIDAD

Photo by C. Phelps

POST CARD

250

Copyright London

The "Pitch Lake" has an area of over one hundred acres, all asphalt or pitch to an unknown depth. The asphalt is largely used for road making and industrial purposes. It is dug out and the holes refill by the slow flow of the asphalt so that the surface remains level.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY)

Printed in England (C 11)