

AMOCO Renegades tied with Phase II Pan Groove for first place.

Renegades, Phase II

in tie

FROM PAGE 1

final. The band was awarded 261 points for its arrangement of Scrunter's "She Want Me to Sing in the Party".

Valley Harps, playing in eighth position, finished eighth. The Petit Valley band earned 256 for its "One Day" by Natasha Wilson.

In the East final, Exodus had the crowd going wild with a scintillating performance of De Alberto's "Pan Woman". The band earned 279 points.

A close second with 277 points was Solo Harmonites which played "Pan in A Minor." There was a tie for third place between National Quarries Cordettes and Gerizim Angel Harps with 273 points. Fifth was Nutones with "Say Say" while favourites Pamberi gave a disappointing display to finish sixth.

Seventh was Simple Song, while the final place went to Birdsong.

The results:

EAST: 1. Exodus — 279; 2. Solo Harmonites — 277; 3. Gerizim Angel Harps and Cordettes — 273; 5. Nutones — 272; 6. Pamberi — 271; 7. Simple Song — 268; 8. Birdsong — 258.

NORTH: 1. Amoco Renegades and Phase II Pan Groove — 285; 3. Witco Desperadoes — 280; 4. Catelli Trinidad All Stars — 273; 5. Merrytones — 269; 6. Trintoc Invaders — 266; 7. Fertrin Pandemonium — 261; 8. Valley Harps — 256.

ML1040

SG Feb 22, 1987
P. 18