

Men behind the music

ROBIN FOSTER is a freelance Audio Video Recording Technician. He graduated from ATS Broadcast Training Centre, New York in 1980 with a Diploma in radio and TV programming and production.

On his return to Trinidad he worked for Trinidad and Tobago Television for five years as a Technical Operator. In 1985, he moved to Video Associates Ltd where he remained for three years working sound on many television productions including Calabash Alley, Youth Today, and A Place in the Sun.

Leaving Video Associates in 1988 he became a full-time freelance recording technician, working on sound recording projects for various clients including: Gemini TV — Sugar Cane Arrows
Multi-Media Ltd — Par is Beautiful V recording

Frank Agarrat at the controls.

London Records — Bacchanal Woman (music video)
Shandileer — Shakin' It (music video)
Lonsdale Advertising — various radio and television commercials
Frank Agarrat — P.A. operation.

MEN continues on Page 7