

'Children Of Israel' Top Band

News Correspondent

DIEGO MARTIN, Feb. 14—Starlight Steel Orchestra with the "Children of Israel" was adjudged Band of the Year for the third successive year at the Carnival competition here yesterday afternoon. They received a cash prize of $50, a tea set and won the O'Halloran Trophy outright.

Merritone Steel Band won the first prize in the Steel Band competiton. Gayland Fascina-tors were runners-nup.

Afternoon rains dampened the spirit of the celebrations, but what appeared to be a disappointing beginning turned out to be a bright and exciting end.

tors were runners-up.

Afternoon rains dampened the spirit of the celebrations, but what appeared to be a disappointing beginning turned out to be a bright and exciting end. Among the other contestants were Comedians, Jab Jab, Robbers and Prehistoric men.

Three young scientists — George Assee, Anthony Lopez and Francis Lopez, ages 12, 9 and 7, respectively—shot up a rocket (balloon) here yesterday which kept the large crowd looking up until it disappeared in space.

Other prizes won were:

Combined comedians by R. S. Sylvestre; Robber — Basdeo Beharry.

Individuals—1st: Miss Jelin Simon, portraying the wife of Ferro; and 2nd, Miss Alma Small, maiden in the House of Ferro.