

10 Pan Bands Named For Mask Contest

The 10 steelbands selected to compete in the finals for the Best Road March Steelband at the "Carnival Panorama 1963" on Friday night at the Queen's Park Savannah, Port-of-Spain were announced yesterday afternoon by the President of the Steelbandmen Association, Mr. George Goddard, following a meeting of the panmen at their headquarters, Wrightson Road, Port-of-Spain.

The 10 are: Invaders, Wonderland, Casablanca, San Juan All Stars, Starlift, Pan-Am North Stars, City Symphony, Desperadoes, Sundowners and Modern Sunland.

News In Brief

'Queen's' Baggage Arrives

Miss Loretta Gipeon, visiting American beauty queen whose baggage went astray while she was on her way from New York to Port-of-Spain, said yesterday through the efforts of British West Indian Airways the baggage was found in Puerto Rico and flown to Trinidad on Saturday night.

Miss Gipeon, who won the "Miss Bronze '63" title, travelled from New York to Puerto Rico by Trans Caribbean airlines.

LIBRARY FILM — The Government Film Unit is making a film on the Library Services of Trinidad and Tobago, states a release from the Library Association. The film will be shown throughout the country.

The order in which the bands was called out, did not indicate the order of merit in which the three judges—Miss Umlita Mc Shine, Major Rupert Denison and Commander Mc Donald — had placed them.

Scoring points were not disclosed yesterday, as it was agreed that the points results of both the preliminaries, held on Sunday, and the Friday night finals, will be released on Wednesday, February 27.

IMPORTANT ISSUE

In an address to steelbands' representatives who attended yesterday's meeting, Mr. Goddard said winning a cash prize was not the "important issue."

"What is important," he pointed out, "is that we remain together in the association and assist one another, as well as gain the respect of people outside."

Leaders of the 10 steelbands selected to appear at the finals are to be at the Grand Stand at 5 p.m. today for a rehearsal. They will also have to appear at the association's head-

Page 2 T.G.

Leaders of the 10 steelbands' representatives ~~are~~ ~~attended~~ selected to appear at the final grandstand at 5pm today for a rehearsal. They will also appear at the association's headquarters in Wrightson Road at 5pm tomorrow to draw ballots for the order in which their bands will appear on stage Friday night.

Guardian Photo

ROUND THE WORLD : Miss Maureen Guy, of Port-of-Spain, receives two tickets for a round-the-world cruise from Mr. Tom Breen, Managing Director of Stephens and Todd and Fogarty. The tickets are the grand prize in the Christmas competition sponsored by the group of stores. Miss Guy and her companion will sail around the world either in the Southern Cross or Northern Star. Ports of call include Panama, Tahiti, Fiji, New Zealand, Australia, South Africa, Canary Islands and England. Left to right are, Ken Gordon, General Manager of the Trinidad Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Breen, Mr. Ken Hadley, advertising representative of CPV (Caribbean) Ltd., and Mr. Roy Persaud of Stephens and Todd and Fogarty. Twenty-one persons drew prizes but only 11 turned up for the final draw. The other 10 will each receive $35 in merchandise.

Shell Fuels Talks Open

Guardian Industrial Reporter
Mr. William M. Moore, Managing Director of Shell Trinidad Limited, yesterday opened a Shell Sales Technical

Trinidad Gets Tips To Help Tourists

Guardian Industrial Reporter

Mr. Don Bain, General Manager of the Trinidad Tobago Tourist Board, has announced several tips on people here can help make visitors welcome and politeness.

He advises: "Help visitors save time, for time is important to most travellers. Tell them how and where to view and participate in local events; which shops have the things they want; which tours will take them to certain landmarks most quickly; the most scenic routes, etc.

"Help the visitor spend his money wisely. Your thoughtfulness in directing visitors to places within their budgets — restaurants, hotels, guest houses, etc. — will be remembered. You can usually find out in a diplomatic way what price range the visitor is looking for. Hint about travellers' cheques, tipping practices and conversion of foreign currency to local will help.

INTEREST IN CHILDREN

"Show interest in their children. Parents are the same the world over—they appreciate the extra attention shown

Union Studies Case Against Water Board

Guardian Labour Reporter

Last night a special general meeting of the Central Distribution Authority and of the Federated Water Union debated action against the Authority.

Vehicle drivers of the union are peeved about the delay in negotiations on compensation since September, and are looking to an agreement with the union and the Authority that ended a strike last

Mr. Simeon Alexander, Assistant General of the union,