

Show To Aid Steelband 'Operation Britain' Fund

GROUP OF THE LITTLE CARIB COMPANY sponsoring "Ajoupa" barn dance to aid the 'Operation Britain' fund is shown above. The dance will be held at the Cocorite Youth centre on June 29 next. Highlight of the function will be the dance of the "Coconut Trees" followed by "Trade Winds."

The "Ajoupa" show sponsored by the Little Carib Company will be held at the Cocorite Youth Centre on June 29 next, in aid of the "Operation Britain" fund.

Highlight of the function will be the dance of the "Coconut Trees" followed by "Trade Winds."

Tickets for the function are on sale at Y. de Lima and Co and the Little Carib.

Arima Cultural Association will sponsor a steelband recital early next month to help to boost the funds to "Operation Britain," reported the "Evening News" correspondent from Arima, this morning.

Mr. Holly Betaudier, local representative of the association, has launched a wide publicity campaign for the function.