Festival Fashions — By London Leading Six

A collection of fashions was seen at the Festival of Britain South Bank Exhibition, designed by leading members of the Incorporated Society of London Fashion Designers.

wearing "Buzz-Buzz" by Digby Morton, of black and white crepe de chine patterned in bias.

Helen, wearing "Royal Ascot" by Peter Russell, an afternoon dress in black ottoman finely ribbed silk twill.

Rosie, wearing "Lola Mortez" a short evening dress by Estill in black taffetas, entirely tiered with large side sweep, with two flowers tucked in the skirt.

Avril, wearing "Macaw" by Mr. Michael of Lachasso, a suit in green and purple Paisley-tis-silk.

June, wearing Victor Stichel's "Scottish Fling," and evening dress in real silk organza with a multi-coloured bodice in amber, orange, pale green, pale blue and pale yellow with plain white skirt.—(C.O.I.)
