

CAVALIERS TOP SOUTH STEELBAND

Guardian Staff Reporter

SAN FERNANDO, Feb. 6 — Guinness Cavaliers were adjudged winners of the South Trinidad steel band competition run by the San Fernando Carnival Improvement Committee held at the Naparima Bowl, Paradise Pasture on Monday night.

Results announced by the Mayor, Councillor Errol Mahabir, chairman of the committee, were:

1—Guinness Cavaliers; 2—Texaco Sundowners; 3—Teenage Symphony.

These three bands were the most popular with the huge crowd, but it is doubtful whether any of them would have put the Cavaliers above Sundowners.

There was little doubt that the two were in the running, with the Symphony right behind them.

The competition was run in conjunction with the South Calypso King Competition and 12 bands contested honours.

Winners played Fighter's "Come Leh We Go" and "Kiss of Fire."

Sundowners played Dynamite's "Modern Philosophy" and Kitchener's "Mama This Is Mass."

Teenage Symphony played Lord Shortle's "Cloak and Dagger" and "High De, High Lo."

Miss Princes Town

PRINCES TOWN, Feb. 6 — Miss Sybil Daly was crowned "Miss Princes Town 1964" at the Carnival Fiesta here during the early hours of this morning by Mr. Isambert Rousseau, Warden of Victoria. She won from six contestants. Runner-up was Miss Kamia Maharaj and third Miss Eve Nagee.

The Mighty Maestro, who was fourth in the South Trinidad Calypso King contest at Naparima Bowl, won the Princes Town Calypso King competition.
