

ML 1040

Voices from the Panyard Part II

Birdsong to host free Christmas concert

ON December 2, the Birdsong Steel Orchestra Pan Theatre on St Vincent Street, Tunapuna, will be the venue for Voices from the Panyard Part II—A Gift to the Community.

The Christmas concert is free to the public and will feature the Lydian Singers led by Dr Pat Bishop, Birdsong Steel Orchestra with supporting artiste, Birdsong Pan Academy and the Richard Quarless Orchestra.

For Birdsong and the community, this event will be a celebration of a successful year during which the band's third annual Vacation Music

Literacy Programme was held and proved to be an outstanding success.

One hundred and seven people participated and 60 of them have joined other graduates of the pan academy.

It is noteworthy that the music literacy programme is free for all participants.

Young musicians participate in the third annual Birdsong Vacation Music Literacy Programme.