

"Pitch Lake"

Trinidad, B.W.I.

On Ship-board, Post Card Sept. 18, 1932 ^{1.50}

For Correspondence

Address Only

This is the best picture I could get of the Pitch Lake. It has evidently rained, and all that water must be drained off, before they can cut the pitch out in blocks. You see the steamer, waiting to carry it off, probably to America, to make our asphalt streets.