

'All Star' Band To Make Recordings In England

Recordings will soon be made by the "Caribbean All Star" band, now under contract in England, the "Evening News" understands.

Leaving Trinidad short of two players, the band was later joined by Cyril Jones, pianist, and a saxophonist was found in England after much difficulty. Now completed, the band is doing daily rehearsals.