

POST CARD

Hamburg-American Line's Cruise to the West Indies

NEXT CRUISES
March 12 and April 11
1914

ST. P. I.

Cable to the Company's New York Office from the S. S. "Victoria Luise:"

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, February 26, 1914.

*The "Victoria Luise" arrived on time
after an enjoyable voyage from La Guayra. Weather delightful. All well.*

HAMBURG-AMERICAN LINE
Department of Cruises

PORT OF SPAIN, the capital of Trinidad, is one of the busiest and most attractive cities in the West Indies. The tropical environments make it as close to an earthly paradise as anyone could hope to realize. Trinidad is the southernmost island in the West Indies.

*Miss B. Griffin,
R. D. No. 3,
W. S. Packard,
Carmel, Me.*

Reverse Side of Card Shows Natives at Work at Pitch Lake, Trinidad.