

Panorama judges chosen

PAN TRINBAGO has settled on a panel of judges for the Panorama competitions at the Queen's Park Savannah on Saturday.

The panel was selected yesterday following problems in getting judges for the Saturday competition.

The , five-man penel announced by Pan Trinbago yesterday comprises:

Hugh Borde, Curtis Pierre, Junior Pouchet, Arthur Watson and Steve du Pres. Pan Trinbago decided that Supt. Anthony Prospect and Rev. Fr. John Sewell will judge in the semi-finals and finals of the competition.

The judges are to meet at Pan Trinbago's offices at Queen Street, Port of Spain at 5 p.m. today .

At the same time steelbands taking part in the competitions will draw for positions at Pan Trinbago offices.

Tickets for the preliminaries go on sale from 9 a.m. today at the savannah Prices: $5 for adults and $2 for children.

Express 26/01/1978