Pan award for Kitchener

Gary Cardinez

PAN Trinbago TC presented Aldwyn "Lord Kitchener" Roberts with a posthumous award for the composer of the most played calypsoes in the 50 years of Panorama.

The award was presented at a gala function that took place at the Cascadia Hotel, St Ann's recently as the governing body for pan celebrated Panorama's Golden Jubilee.

Since 1963, 18 of Kitchener's songs have won Panorama with a tie in 1985 when the judges were unable to separate Witco +Desperadoes and bpTT Renegades with "Pan Night and Day".

For 11 years straight from 1967 when Cavaliers played

"Sixty Seven" arranged by Lennox Bobby Mohammed to 1977 when Desperadoes played Clive Bradley's arrangement of "Crawford", steel orchestras that played songs composed and recorded by Kitchener won the Panorama.

Included in this run was the Solo Harmonites under the direction of Earl Rodney, which won four titles during the period with "Wrecker" (1968), "Play Mas" (1971), "St Thomas Girl" (1972) and "Jerico" (1974).

Desperadoes also won in 1970 with "Margie"" arranged by Mackie Boyce and in 1976 playing "Pan in Harmony" under the direction of Clive Bradley.

In total Desperadoes won four Panorama titles playing

Kitchener songs while Renegades won seven titles with his music.

To date Jit Samaroo is the most successful Panorama arranger having garnered nine titles, seven of them with songs by Kitchener. He is followed by Leon "Smooth" Edwards with seven titles to his name. The Trinidad All Stars Steel Orchestra won one Panorama title playing a song by Kitchener, namely "Rainoroma" arranged for them by Rudy Wells in 1973.

Clive Bradley and Len "Boogsie" Sharpe have won six Panorama titles each, Bradley doing so with two of Kitchener's songs. Pelham Goddard has captured four Panorama titles to date.
