

NEWS

Pantastic!

YOUNG pan players showed they could compete against the most seasoned panmen based on their performances at the Junior Panorama finals at Queen's Park Savannah, Port-of-Spain yesterday. Here are highlights.

SAILING ON: St Mary's Government Primary School dressed the part as sailors for their performance of 'Sailing' to place second in the primary school category of Junior Panorama at Queen's Park Savannah, Port-of-Spain yesterday. PHOTOS BY ROGER JACOBS

PASSION PLAY: El Dorado East Secondary play with passion in their second-place performance of 'She Ready' in the secondary schools Junior Panorama, Queen's Park Savannah, Port-of-Spain yesterday. PHOTOS BY ROGER JACOB

BASS BALANCE: A player of St Charles' Steel Orchestra balances on her bass pans during their performance in the secondary schools Junior Panorama yesterday.