

'Boogsie' promises a show to remember

The man called "The Mozart of Pan" Len "Boogsie" Sharpe is ready to roll, or is it rumble, at the Little Carib Theatre, corner White and Robert streets, Woodbrook, Port-of-Spain?

The pan maestro told Pan Buzz that all is set for tonight and tomorrow's shows at 8 pm, which he said will be a "show to remember with a difference."

The master arranger, composer and pannist will be unveiling a new piece called Let's Make Here A Better Place from an upcoming CD. He said for shows he will be playing songs from the CD Boogsie Plays Sparrow such as Rose, Royal Jail and Memories, plus some of his own compositions, all backed by a nine-piece band of pan and conventional instruments.

Boogsie told Pan Buzz among the musicians are Douglas Redon, Clifford Charles, Richard Joseph, Felix Roach, Kenneth Clarke and Desiree Mayers of Caribbean Airline Invaders.

The man called Sugar Ray (Holman) will be his special guest. Boogsie a is widely travelled pan troubadour and is regarded as a gifted and versatile performer.

He is the leader and co-founder of Petrotrin Phase II Pan Croove. Remember, showtime is at 8 pm.
