

C 3 A CEDAR TREE IN THE FOREST, TRINIDAD

POST CARD

50

The Cedar of Trinidad is distinct from the Cedar of Lebanon. It attains a height of 80 to 120 feet and the wood is largely used locally for house construction and furniture and also exported for the manufacture of cigar boxes.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY)

Copyright London

Printed in England (C 3)

LR S