

Pan Trinbago hosts awards tonight

GUARDIAN 10/08/2012 B5

The annual Pan Trinbago Awards takes place tonight at 8 o'clock at the Festival Ballroom, Crowne Plaza, Wrightson Road, Port-of-Spain. Pan Trinbago will award several people who have contributed to the development of the national instrument.

On Sunday, pan goes to the Chaguaramas Boardwalk in another exciting presentation in the Pan Trinbago series, Pan In The Countryside.

The Trinidad All Stars Association will hold a meeting on Sunday at 10 am at its headquarters, Woodbrook Fellowship Building, corner of Duke and George streets, Port-of-Spain. All members are asked to attend.

Here are some other events as Steelband Month continues:

• August 15 at 8 pm:

Defenders of the Pan Day (Pioneers' Day). This event, also called "Badjohn Day," will be held at the Renegades Pan Theatre, Charlotte Street, Port-of-Spain.

• August 18 at 10 am:

Youth rally featuring junior steelbands. The Paddock, Queen's Park Savannah, Port-of-Spain.

• August 20 at 4 pm:

Parade of Floats, around Queen's Park Savannah, Port-of-Spain.

• August 25 at 5 pm: Woodbrook Centenary Parade (Pan on the Avenue)

• August 26 at 4 pm:

City Sun Valley celebrates Nelson Street icons with awards and a pan programme on Nelson Street, Port-of-Spain.

• August 30:

Pan Night And Day—pan in public spaces and places to mark the 20th anniversary of the Declaration of Pan as The National Instrument.

• August 31

(Independence Day): Brunches in various panyards.

September 1:

Carib Woodbrook Playboyz Independence Fiesta, Woodbrook Playboyz panyard, Tragarete Road, Port-of-Spain.