

DAZZLING MUSIC AND DAZZLING SHIRTS:— Lieutenant N. Griffith, conducts TANPO during their performance at the South Bank Exhibition of the Festival of Britain last Friday. Londoners, hearing a steel band for the first time, thought the music "sweet and liquid." The boys' shirts, like the music, were considered "simply dazzling."
—(AP Photo)

City Council Rejects Plan To Outlaw Taxis

The City Council, unlike its subsidiary, the Port-of-Spain Corporation Electricity Board is not in favour of approaching Government to outlaw taxis plying on the Corporation's 'bus routes.