

T&T national selected as new UWI Chancellor

ADMIN

CREATED : 20 APRIL 2017

T&T NEWS

A Trinidad and Tobago national has been selected to serve as the next Chancellor of the University of the West Indies (UWI), the second national of this country to be appointed to the position in the University's history.

UPDATE: UWI expressed surprise at the announcement, saying the choice is to be made by the university council.

Education Minister Anthony Garcia made the announcement at today's Post Cabinet media briefing at the Diplomatic Centre, St Ann's.

Current Chancellor, Sir George Allen is set to demit office July 31, 2017.